

Project Engineer - Welding Engineer (IWE)

Job description:

As a Project Engineer - Welding Engineer (IWE), you will be responsible for the welding-related activities for multiple projects related to the generation of sustainable energy.

- Prepare project-specific welding plans based on contractual agreements
- Review welding plans for subcontractors
- Assist in implementing a standardized welding plan aligned with the production processes across various manufacturing sites
- Organize welding procedure qualifications when necessary
- Maintain close contact with the client regarding all welding-related matters
- Prepare reports and documentation
- Report to the Technology Manager

Profile:

- Welding Engineer / International Welding Engineer (IWE)
- Minimum of 3 years of experience as a Welding Engineer, Welding Technologist, Technology Engineer, or a similar role related to welding technology
- Strong communicator | cost-efficient thinker | customer-friendly | team player
- Excellent command of English

Offer:

- Permanent contract
- Work within a globally renowned company
- An environment where your ideas and initiatives can make a difference
- Attractive salary package with fringe benefits, including the option for a company car, meal vouchers, group and hospitalization insurance
- 20 vacation days + 12 extra days off

Contact

- Algemeen Bridger Jobs, jobs@bridgerprojects.be
- Mobile: